THAI ACUPRESSURE

NOAM TYROLER, ZAGREB, 3rd-7th April 2010

This intensive workshop represents the essence of Noam's 20 years of work and study in therapeutic Thai massage. It is based on the Southern, Royal style, which is characterised by strong, firm pressure on acupressure points.

The workshop participants will learn 60 traditional medical formulas for the treatment of specific orthopaedic disorders, as well as the proper methods of making a diagnosis.

These formulas have been tested in practice, they are highly efficient, and, at the same time, extremely easy to use.

This workshop is open for practitioners of related disciplines such as Shiatsu and Tui Na massage therapists, as well as physiotherapists and other bodyworkers.

We are looking forward to your participation!
